OPENING THE WASHINGTON HORSE SHOW

The National Capital Horse Show opened recently with its most spectacular feature—a flying leap over an automobile and its occupants by Ralph Coffin on "Rabbit." In the car were Ralph Stokes, Jr., and the Misses King Stone and Louise Fahnestock.

UTES LOSE BY NARROW MARGIN

The score—Oakland 2, Salt Lake 1. The batteries—Oakland, Martin and Elliott; Salt Lake, Warhop and Hannah. Probable batteries for today's game—Salt Lake, Pittory or Prulett and Hannah; Oakland, Beer or Klawitter and Elliott.

San Francisco, Cal., May 11.—As a matter of straight baseball, barring the miscues and the battery slip-ups, today's game should have been a zero to zero session so far as it went. The Martin vs. Warhop duel was productive of good pitching and a brevity of hitting.

But the Oaks took advantage of an eighth inning unsteadiness of Jack Warhop, together with the wits of Harry Hannah that were evidently gone wool gathering, to put over a couple of tallies and take the session by 2 to 1.

TRACK AND FIELD CHAMPS MEET

Annual State High School Classic to be Held in Salt Lake Today—Ogden Entries.

The annual state high school track and field meet will be held this afternoon on Cummings field. It will draw into competition athletes from every section of Utah. The meet will start at 3 o'clock sharp.

Indications point to the Branch Agricultural college as the probable winner.

West and East highs of Salt Lake, Ogden high and Payson appear as strong contenders for second honors.

Salt Lake, May 12.—The sporting classic of the season, so far as Utah is concerned, will be held this afternoon on Cummings field when athletes from every division of state high schools will compete for field and track honors. The meet will start at 3 o'clock. The Branch Agricultural college, West and East Highs, Ogden and Payson appear, on paper, as the strongest teams. The big event every year produces a dark horse and this season may bring into the meet some other "unknown" to be classed with the Richards, Snows, Atkins, Haymonds and Larsens of Utah fame.

Murdock academy, winner of last year's track meet, is not hopeful of a victory today. Murdock graduated its entire list of stars last spring. Branch A. C., which ran second to Murdock, is strong, and Ogden and West Highs will present some strong athletes as usual, Ogden being weaker than last year, however, due to the loss of Fuller and Kay. Payson, winner of the Utah county track meet, looks strong, and with East High appears as liveliest competitors for second place with West and Ogden.

Coach Nelson H. Norgren of the University of Utah has the events under his supervision today, which means that lots of action will be crowded into a few hours. "Norak" has figured in Chicago meets and will furnish the spectators with plenty of life and a minimum of delay. Assisting him will be university athletes, in charge of their specialties.

The meet will start at 3 o'clock sharp, and according to announcement special car service will start today at 2 o'clock over the Mount Olivet and Thirteenth East lines for the big Olympic of Utah.
